

200 South Brentwood, 5B, St. Louis, Mo 63105

314.910.0764

www.theartslive.com

“The Arts Live” National Database Project objective is to broaden public awareness of contemporary American Art in United States, “The Arts Live” web site will be documenting the careers of some of the United States leading professional artists. “The Arts Live” site will featured galleries, art institutions and organizations that have helped shape the art scene.

This national database is an alphabetical listing by artist, and by medium. By clicking on artist’s name, image details will appear about the artist’s current work (up to 5 images) and this will include each artist’s statement, email and /or contact information, web site and view up to 5 jpegs images of the artist’s work.

- The artists retain ownership of all of their materials contained in the database
- Art Sales are commission free. Buyers contact the artist directly
- All artists represented on theartslive.com are juried onto the site to ensure the utmost quality of professional work

Submit your art for consideration: Email artistdatabase@theartslive.com or send CD to 200 S. Brentwood, Ste. 5 B, St. Louis, MO 63105 with the following information:

- Send 5 digital images (jpegs) 600 pixels on the longest side
- Web Site Link
- Email Address (or if you are represented by a gallery you may use that as your contact)
- Artist Statement in 500 words or less (Microsoft Word document please)
- Contact information you wish to display on “The Arts Live” include name, medium, City, State, phone number (optional) web site, and email address
- Payment of $60 for one year, beginning from sign up date. We accept payment via check payable to (Rosen & Associates) or online payment through PayPal.
- Please call (314) 910.0764 with any question regarding the application process

Please note that while not all artist are accepted for inclusion, full refunds are given to those who are not accepted.

